*IMPORTANT NOTIFICATION****

ATTN: ALL AUTHORIZED TEIN DEALERS

We have just confirmed the existence of counterfeit, TEIN S-techs being sold on Ebay and other Internet websites. We are currently in the process of identifying the culprits and will take necessary action against all parties found involved or associated with this illegal deed. If you or any of your staff come across any information concerning this matter, please let us know via email at sales@tein.com; in the subject line type "counterfeit springs".

Please be advised that usage of the counterfeit S-Tech may pose a serious safety issue, as we are unsure of the extent of research and development conducted on this product. Others potential issues are as follows:

- ? NO precise lowering spec.
- ? Unknown quality, which may lead to sagging, rust, cracking and noise issues
- ? Unknown Engineering Data
- ? Extremely dangerous and can lead to suspension failure

We ask that you inform all your dealers and retail customers to be cautious when purchasing online. Also, be sure to use caution when performing any installation of S-tech springs, should you have any doubt please contact us immediately. For images on how to distinguish the two types, please visit <http://www.tein.com/counterfeit/warning.html>

Be assured that we will do all in our power to protect our brand. Also we are strongly recommending to everyone that the only way to assure authenticity of any TEIN product, is to make ALL purchases through an Authorized TEIN Dealer. Thank you for your valuable time.

Best Regards,

TEIN USA INC.
